DAYTON, Ohio, April 22, 1970 --- Kathleen Marie DeWald of Fort Wayne, Indiana, who will continue her education in applied statistics at Purdue University, will graduate number one in a class of 1,171 at the University of Dayton this Sunday, April 26, at 2:30 p.m. in the U.D. Arena. This will be the 120th commencement of the school which was founded in 1850.

Miss DeWald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. DeWald of Fort Wayne, will receive a bachelor of science degree in mathematics, summa cum laude, with an accumulative point average of 3.955. The April class includes 50 honor graduates.

The other summa cum laude graduate will be Mrs. Joan Kilsheimer Wiggenhorn, also a mathematics graduate with a 3.909 point average. Mrs. Wiggenhorn, now working for the National Cash Register Company in Accounting Machine Support, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kilsheimer of Westfield, New Jersey, but now resides with her husband, James, at 1038 Cherry Drive, Dayton. Mr. Wiggenhorn, a UD senior who will receive his diploma in August, is a lifelong resident of Dayton.

Fifteen Daytonians will receive their degrees, magna cum laude or cum laude, at the Sunday exercises. Three Cincinnatians and one graduate each from Xenia, West Carrollton, Oxford and Lebanon are other Southwestern Ohioans who will graduate with honors.

In all, two hundred and seventy four Daytonians (includes Kettering, Trotwood, Centerville) will receive undergraduate and graduate degrees.

Veronica F. Petric and Timothy M. Petric of Cleveland, who graduate in this 120th UD class, are the third and fourth children of Mr. and Mrs. John Petric, 451 E. 156th Street, Cleveland, to receive UD diplomas. Previous Petric graduates were Barbara A., 1967, who is employed as an Assistant Research Analysis at the May Company, Cleveland, and John A., 1959, who was killed in Vietnam on March 2, 1969. Major Petric's widow lives in Dayton.
